The Seniors have been termed "Kings and Queens" this year. Some say they are named that because of their attitudes of superiority, and others say that it is because they refuse to dirty their hands with work. Probably, though, it is simply because they are the oldest, the leaders of the school. They are the captains of the sports teams, and leaders of the extra-curricular activities. They set the standards and provide role models for the younger students to follow. They came in August ready to be at the top of the school's hierarchy. By September, they had settled into their role as leaders and idols(?) They finished their last Spring semester and sent in college applications. The end of the year neared and graduation seemed a reality. They attended their last Prom and prepared for Class Night when they would take their seats in the auditorium for the last time. They graduated on May 30. It's time for the class of 1987 to take over!

This years junior class was filled with excitement and anticipation as the coming year approached. This was it, they were finally upperclassmen. Now the other classes had a reason to look up to them. (as if they hadn't before?) They had to prepare for SATs and ACTs and start thinking about life after U-High. This class pulled through these tasks and did so in a truly "studly" fashion. The juniors gave us many things this year, but the one thing that stands out most is their new language. Better know as the language of the "Chucksters." Why, what else would we do on a Friday night besides "scope the boot", "read a few books," and "pray some girl doesn't 'roach us'." Yes, I guess you could say the juniors truly fit the title of upperclassmen and set an example for all underclassmen to follow.

Most sophomores enter their school year with still a tinge of uneasiness and fear that they aren't exactly a part of high school. Not the sophomores of 1985-86. They adjusted quite rapidly and were soon so "comfortable" with U-high that their newfound confidence encouraged their pep and brought back a lot of the school spirit U-high seemed to have lost in the past. They overcame all shyness and began with winning the guys cheerleading contest (by a small margin over the juniors!). "PeeWee Herman became a tradition at basketball games and we were all not only seeing their smiling faces behind the wheels of the Driver's Ed cars, but mom and dad's cars too.

FRIGHT NIGHT 1985

On October 26, 1985 the junior class sponsored a killer Halloween dance which had the student body dancing up a storm. The dance, Fright Nite '85, was one of the major fund raising activities for the junior class and according to Scott "the Dregs" Degelman was, "A great time to jam and 'scope' the costumes." Halfway through the dance, the floor was cleared and prizes were given to the students in the funniest, scariest, most original, and cutest couple categories. All in all everyone had a thrilling time and the night was a huge success for the junior class.

As halftime of the U-high vs. Olympia Homecoming football team game rolled around everyone waited with anticipation of the announcement of our school's Homecoming King and Queen. Members of the court were seniors: S. Armstrong, L. DeVary, J. Concklin, S. Allison, M. Padgett, K. Sweeney, K. Block, J. Brumeleve, F. Zayas, B. Jarnecki, S. Straub, and J. Moberly. Females were escorted by a select crowd of junior guys. The crowd cheered as a tearful Kelly Sweeney and a smiling Jim Moberly were crowned King and Queen to reign over the remaining Homecoming Festivities.

University High School's Homecoming festivities began with Thursday evening and the annual bonfire. Friday night the student body and faculty crowded into Horton Field House to watch the Pioneer Football team play Olympia Spartans. A moment of excitement for the young U-high team graced the Homecoming game. Foreign Exchange Student Pieter Theron caught an 80 yard touchdown pass to save the team from a shut out. The team gave a valiant effort despite the 34-7 loss to the Conference champs. The Saturday evening dance concluded the festivities with "Action Potential" contributing their songs and music to the dance.

UNIVERSITY HIGH SCHOOL MARCHING PIONEERS

The Marching Pioneers seem to get better and better every year. Last December, the band travelled to Florida to perform at the Gatorbowl and Disney World. The band received two division II plaques in both parade and field shows. These scores were the best the band ever earned during the six years of Mark Victor's band directing. Notably, the percussion section received the highest scores of all 16 bands that competed in the field show. Other awards received this year were 2nd place at the I.S.U. Homecoming Parade. The band has had a successful year and Mr. Victor is the one all of us should thank for a band all of us can be proud of.

European Vacation!

Cellists playing for money in the metro station

Lying on the pavement, Laura Edwards managed to capture a cathedral on film.

MARCH 11 3:50 P.M. — Janet Jones, Laura Edwards, and Leslie McCormack had taken the risk and were flying to France alone. They were to meet up with a group of Iowa students whom they had never seen before. Nerves and jitters caused a few tears to flow and the 14 day excursion to Europe was about to begin.

MARCH 25 7:50 P.M. — The three left the airport, bags full of gifts and memoirs, bodies covered in European attire, and tears once again rolling down their faces. This time it was not the fear, but the departure that caused them. Together, with their new friends they had tasted new things, seen the famous Eiffel Tower, the Louvre, Mona Lisa in person, met new people, and shared the most wonderful adventures and experiences of their lives.

Headstrong Soccer Keeps Improving

University High School Soccer Team

The 1985 U-High soccer team, with all starters being returning lettermen, turned in an impressive season, finishing with an 18-5-0 record. The 1985 season was highlighted with some great accomplishments. The team tied State Champions Quincy Notre Dame in the River City Soccer Classic Tournament. After regulation time, the score was tied 0-0, but the pioneers lost in a shutout. Another highlight in the season was winning the Regional Championship, defeating NCHS, 3-1. The season was ended with a heartbreaking loss in Sectionals to Springfield High for the 2nd year in a row. The soccer team has vowed to avenge these losses, so look for an even improved team next year.

Grapplers

It was a rebuilding year for U-High sports, and wrestling was no exception. Some of the main factors were inexperience, and the fact that they were under the wrath of first year varsity wrestling coach Jack Eddy. The team advanced 3 wrestlers to sectionals — Rick Feeney at 112, Keith Hudson at 126, and Jim Moberly at 132. With some experience under their belts, the team will be ready for an excellent season next year.

PMM

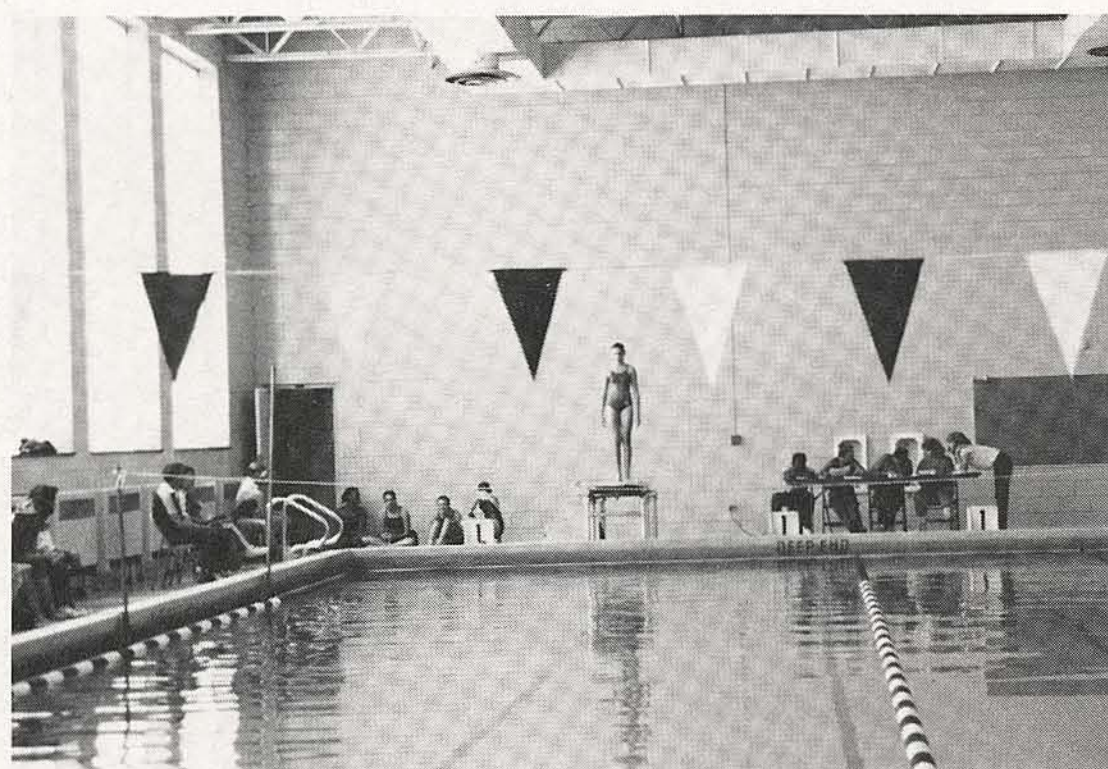

The two most valuable swimmers for the 85-86 Boys Swim Team were seniors Brian VanHorn and John Ryan. Brian finished 2nd at Sectionals and qualified for state in the 100 yd. Breaststroke. John was captain and qualified for state all 4 yrs. He holds a school record for the 100 yd. Breaststroke and was Sectional Champion for three yrs. Though the team has lost two important swimmers, they have some new strong talent that will carry on the winning tradition of the boys swim team.

(No pictures available.)

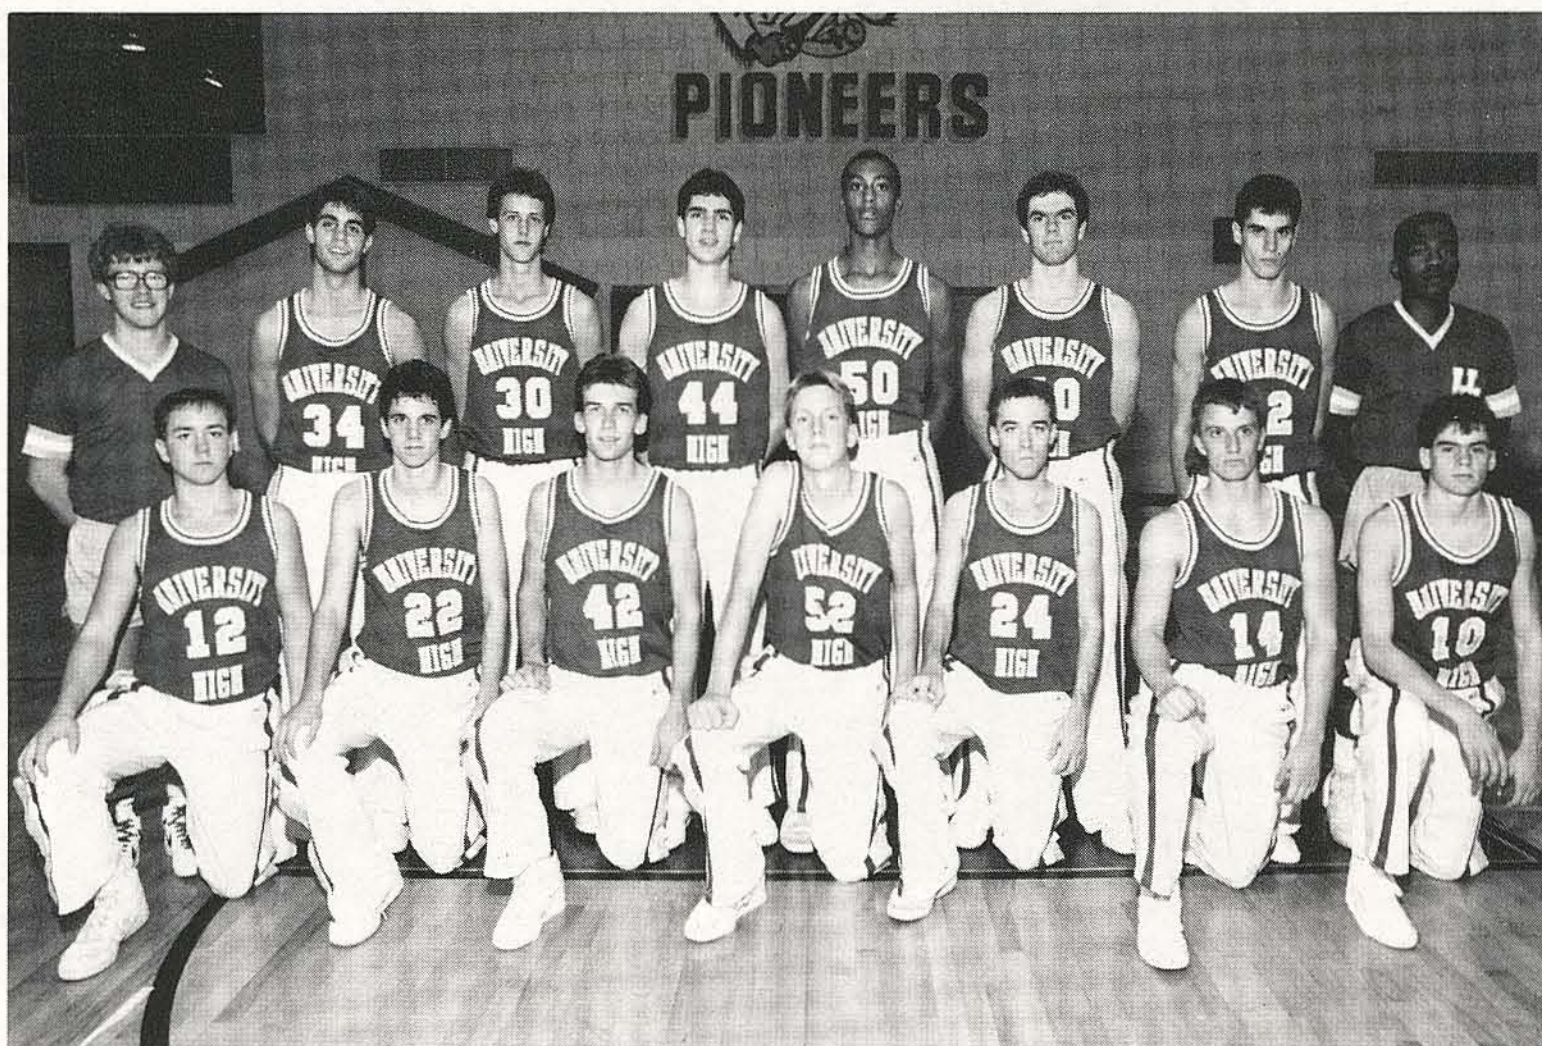

The U-High Girl's Swim Team completed a rebuilding season with an Awards Banquet at the Armstrong's in December. The dominating idea was not that of a terrific season, but that of a young team. The freshmen played a very important role this year, seeing how they were 7 out of 11 team members. The girls earned 7th out of 16 schools at the sectional meet in November, led by Stephanie Armstrong, who placed 3rd in the 200 freestyle and 4th in the 100 freestyle. The 400 freestyle relay, composed of Soka, Armstrong, Morey, and Mede, took a 5th place. The best thing about the girl's swim season was the enthusiasm for improvement. If this can be carried over to next year, the makings of a good season are already there.

Golf

Success is the only word you may use to describe this year's golf team with a record of 17-1. These boys took the title of conference champs, took 2nd at the regional tournament out of 16 teams, 1st at Sectionals out of 9 teams, and placed 8th at state out of 12 teams. A record like this is definately something to be proud of and should not be overlooked.

Volleyball

This year's volleyball team, coached by Lois Wisniewski had a disappointing season. Coach Wisniewski felt the team was better. Their record of 2 and 24 shows this year's team was with only 5 juniors returning and no returning seniors. Therefore, the freshmen and sophomores were moved up to play varsity, and did a fine job of it.

Diamonders Gain Something

The Season for the 1986 U-High Varsity baseball team can be summed up in one word . . . inexperience. With strong leadership from only four seniors, the team compiled a 4-17 regular season record and were 1-7 in the conference. For the seniors of this team this season may have been a real downer, but for the younger members it can be evaluated as a learning year and taken as a catalyst for future success in the U-High Baseball team. The pioneers did come through with one win in the Regional tournament

1986 Softball Team Builds Confidence

The 1986 Softball team started out with two strikes against them, but ended up on top. This team, as many other U-High Sports, was plagued with inexperience. With only 7 returning lettermen, the team had to work hard to fill in the missing positions. But they built their strength and confidence for this season and hopefully for the seasons to come.

Girls track this year, according to Coach Thompson, was probably the best we've had in years. With 10 incoming freshmen, 1 sophomore, and 5 juniors, the Pioneers managed to place at Conference and at the Sectional track meet. Next year, with the exceptional talent we've acquired, can only be better. The U-High Girls Track team, inexperienced as we may be, and as much ridicule as we may receive, is climbing to the top!

Talented Kaiser strides out for the 3200M relay.

U-High is in the lead once again.

Judy Patkunas easily clears another.

Boy's Track Shows Northside Pride

By himself, Bill Longstreth takes on an easy stride.

Another win for the Pioneers.

Dennis Berskens shows his ability at the long jump.

Andy Thomsen uses his strength to hurl the discus.

"HEAVEN" '86

This year's prom was appropriately titled, Heaven. The junior class chose the Miller Park Pavillion for the location of the May 3 dance. The night was beautiful and lighted sacks of sand lit the entrance to the dance. Inside, stars glittered, artificial lights sparkled on the trees, candles shimmered and pink and white balloons floated across the floor. It looked absolutely heavenly. The band, Vicious Circle, played their own variety of music(?), while couples mingled, danced, and posed for pictures. At ten the first Grand March occurred as the girls and their escorts walked across the balcony, as parents watched in awe and reminisced of their high school Prom. After the Grand March the court placed themselves on the balcony in front of the candelabras. The girls held pink and white nosegays with long candles inside of them. The King (Jim Moberly), and the Queen (Mary Padgett) were crowned by Kate Bergin (1985 Queen), and Kris Schwiderski (1985 Court member). The dance came to an end at 11:30 and couples dispersed to change clothes for the After Prom which was again held at the Bowling and Billiards Center at ISU. Everyone agreed that the night was sheer heaven.

Mary Padgett beams as she is crowned Queen 1986.

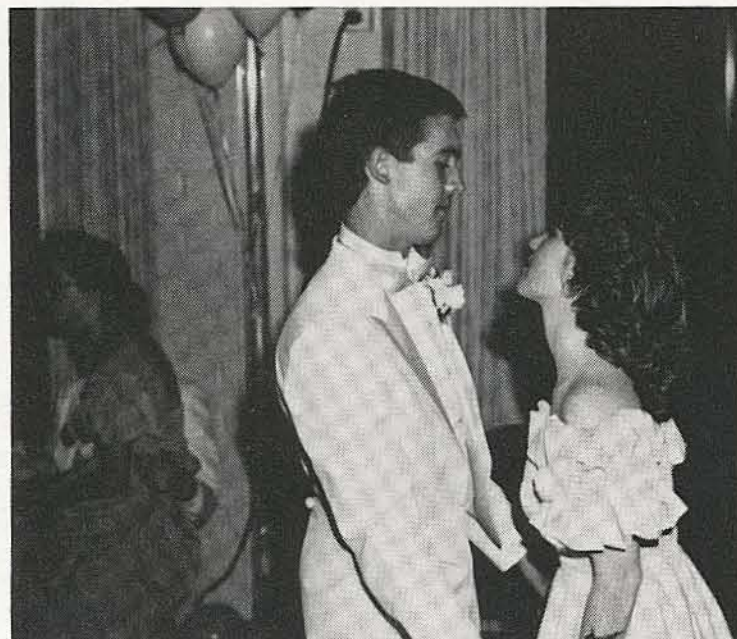

Julie Concklin has justifiably earned her nickname "bubbles."

A view from the balcony.

Steve Van Valey dances eye to eye with his date.

Kristi and Todd Witherow suffering last minute jitters before the crowning.

Jim Moberly, the perfect gentleman, escorts Mary Padgett.

Steve Straub escorts Kristi Mathewson for coronation.

The lone Blaise Jarecki struts through coronation.

Upperclassmen dance the night away.

After Prom 1986

After Prom 1986 was held at ISU's Bowling and Billiards Center. The junior class parents sponsored the bowling, gambling and dancing party. Mr. Wolter auctioned off prizes from cases of pop to stuffed animals to T-shirts. Since prizes were limited to one a piece almost no one walked away empty handed. A D.J. played records for dancing and parents dealt cards for play money. Yes, it was definitely an after hours After Prom that everyone enjoyed.

CJ

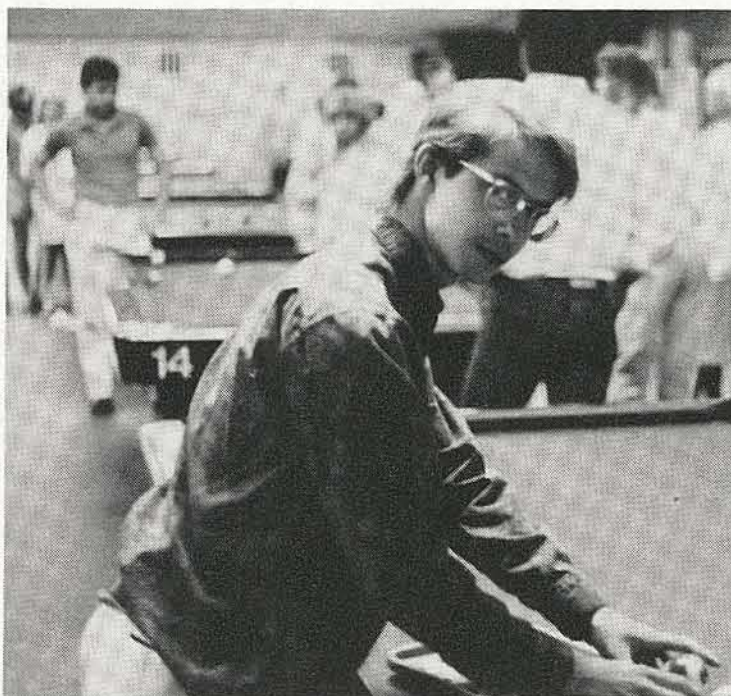

Hey Tim, where's your date?

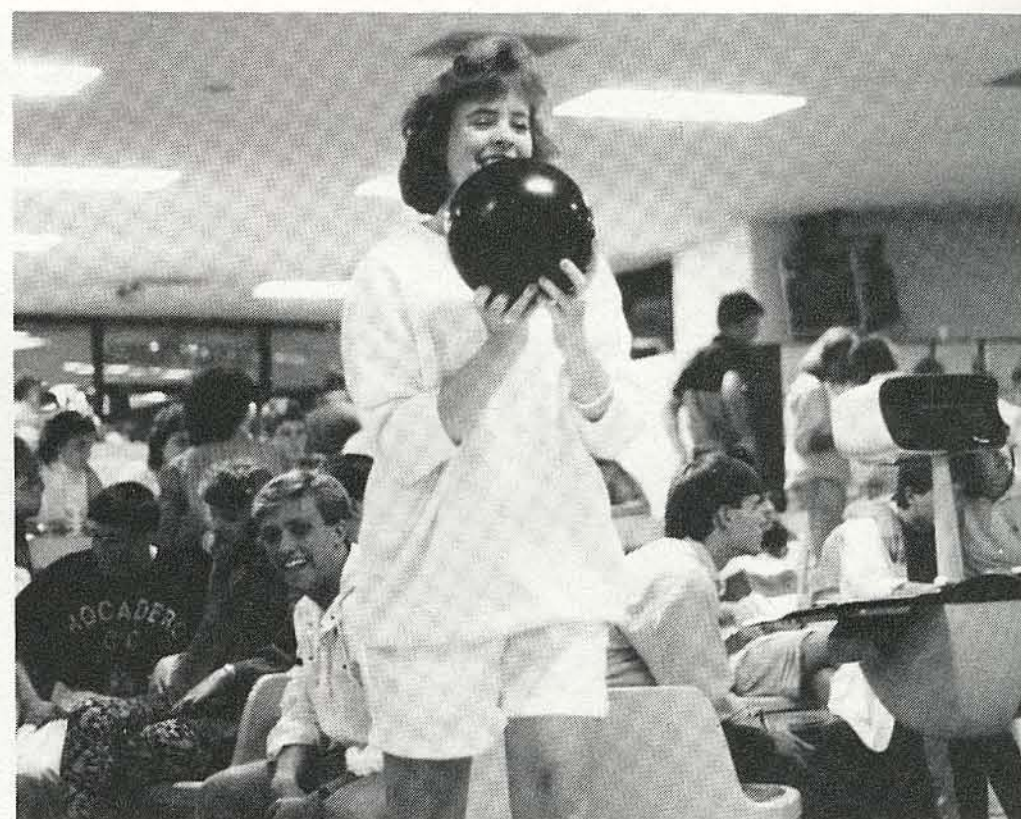

Scott Degelman can charm the girls anytime.

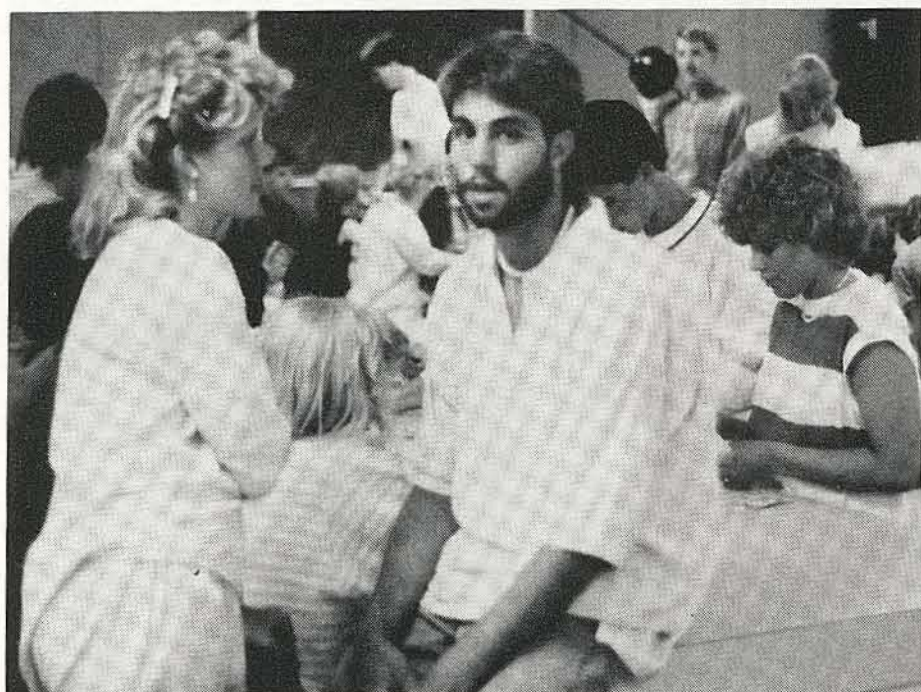

Kim Pruski and Mollie Marsh show they can have fun even without their dates.

Matt Rousey racks for another round of pool.

Cindy Wills displays her bowling expertise.

Leslie and Blaise take a break for a private conversation.

Julie and Dave watch Wendy's attempt at bowling.

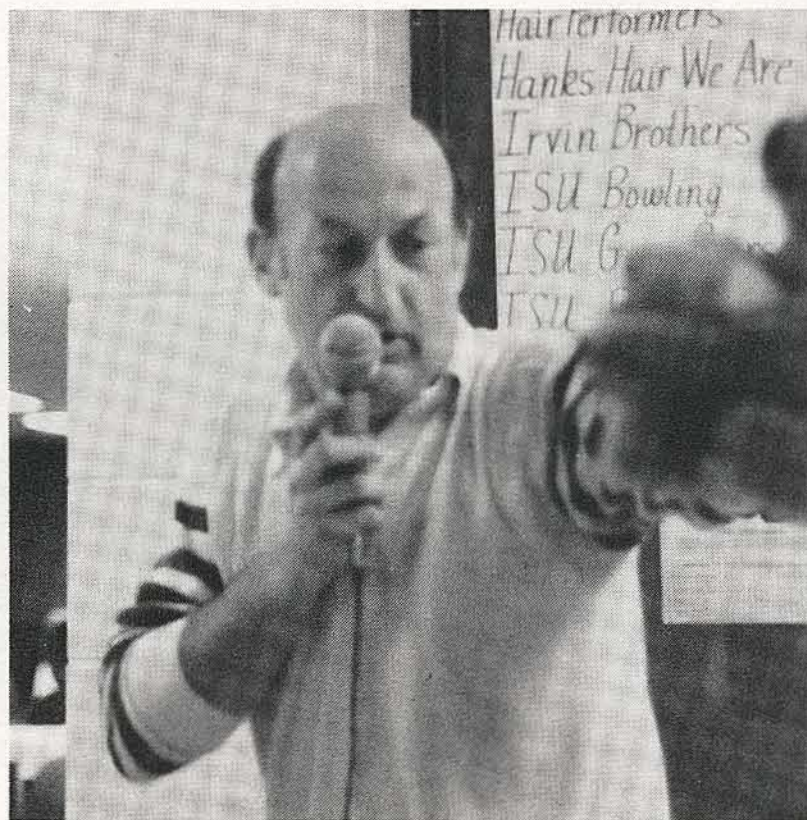

Chuck, Carrie, Leslie and Tim are anxious for the bidding to begin.

Dr. Charton relaxes as he watches the kids have some good clean fun.

It's Evident what Heather and Tim feel about After Prom.

Mr. Wolter bids away a Teddy Bear.

Jim Moberly is being himself once again.

Everyone gathers for the auction.

Frank, Joni, Jeff, and Barbie get into some heavy betting.

The 1986 Brunch this year, put on by the class of 1987, was held at the Sheraton. A buffet was planned for the menu with an assortment of salads, taco fillings, and chicken. As students ate, David Kelly and Joe VanValey recapped the last four year's exciting events and past couples. Greg McKnight wittingly and humorously distributed brunch awards from the best looking to the coolest (?), and then the 14 WILLS were quickly bequeathed despite the fact they primarily consisted of wills for underclassmen not attending the Brunch. It was definately a brunch well put on by the junior class and a good time was had by all. We'll definately miss the dynamic personality the class of 1986 displayed and the air of superiority that constantly surrounded them day after day. (By the way, who won the best personality of that class?) DLH & LMM

Memory of . . .

Scott Quinn

George Chillen

Death,
The word itself is harmless.
It is the context,
the connotation,
that frightens people.
I have never heard the school
so silent,
never seen it so still.

For a moment
eyes stare blankly at walls
and words echo inside heads.
Words just said,
and never said,

and should have been said.
No one cries.

The silence is deeper,
more fitting,
and less final.
For, a moment later,
the school hums again,
alive.
As, somewhere,
the one from whom the silence
was taken
will always be.
